INDIANS WILL NOT COME HERE

Late at Night the Proposed Game With Tarheels Is Cancelled.

SPIDERS' GAME IS CANCELLED

Richmond College Will Not Be on the Gridiron Saturday, Other Sports.

The Carlisle Indians have cancelled the game announced yesterday to be played in Richmond on November 24th with the University of North Carolina. Late last night Mr. Woodson P. Waddy received a telegram from Manager Robinson, of North Carolina, which reads as follows: "Carlisle Indians have cancelled game for 24th."

It is not known why the Indian manager changed his mind, nor could any further information be obtained last night. The game would have drawn an enormous crowd and was already looked forward to with much eagerness by all who had heard that the game had been arranged. That the game is off for good and all this season is certain now, as the park reverts to Randolph-Macon and Richmond College, who were originally scheduled for that date, and no other date is feasible. While it is to be regretted that the game is finally off, it is to be supposed the Indian manager must have had some good reason for his cancellation.

Game Cancelled.

The game of football to have been played here Saturday between Richmond College and Hampden-Sydney College has been cancelled. The Hampden-Sydney College team is badly crippled, and the manager wrote to the manager of the Spiders that the game would have to be called off.

Play in Roanoke.

The V. P. L.-Davidson game will be played in Roanoke Saturday. At first it was thought that the game would be in Lynchburg. The faculty of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute objected to the game being played in Lynchburg, and hence the change. There will be many Richmonders to witness the struggle between these two eleven.

"Push-Ball" Game.

Petersburgers will come to Richmond on Friday night and skate about at the Richmond rink while the "push ball" is being moved across the slippery surface of the floor. The ball is a large one and the game is a new one to Richmonders. Many heads are scheduled to make dents in the floor.

In the Bowling World.

The Haverock Buck Pin team beat the Miscoes on Williams' alley by a good margin. The game was exciting to the finish and the score ended as follows:

LITTLE VIRGINIAS WIN.

Defeat Richmond Academy Second Team by Score of 11 to 0.

Broad Street Park was the scene yesterday afternoon of a pretty game of football between the Little Virginias and the Richmond Academy's second team.

There was a long delay at the beginning of the second half, the Academy trying to run in some first team men. One of the bright features of the game was the playing of Augustine, who, time and again, ploughed through the opposing line for the necessary yards. Close to this was the long gains made by Taylor and Kirtley around the ends, especially the former, who had to go around the end of Bradley, the star player of the first Academy team. The line also played good all-round ball.

Little Virginias made both touchdowns in the second half. On the first touchdown Augustine made a beautiful attempt at a difficult goal, but missed. On the second he kicked an easy goal. There were but two penalties inflicted during the whole game. Academy was penalized once for hurdling and Little Virginias once for unsportsmanlike conduct. The line-up was as follows:

MIDDLESEX PACK RUNS FOX TO EARTH

Mr. A. H. Higginson's English Pack Furnish Fine Sport Near Leesburg.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LEESBURG, VA., November 14.—The Middlesex Hunt Club, of South Lincoln, which is here for the season, commenced this morning at 10 o'clock twenty couples of English hounds at "Lancaster," about three miles from Leesburg. Mr. A. H. Higginson, M. P. H., with Robert Oakesworth, his huntsman, and Harry Hopkins and Wm. Edwards, whips, as well as many of the field, were in pink. The hounds were beautifully groomed and well turned out. A fox was started within ten minutes from the time the hounds were cast, and led the field for an exciting run of over five miles to the Potomac River, where the quarry was denuded.

Hounds were called off and another fox was started, up in the direction of Point of Rocks, taking a line over a magnificent strip of country. The chase, led later by members of the Leesburg Hunt, continued until late this evening. The Leesburg Hunt, Mr. Wymoreland Davis, M. P. H., which is the host of the Middlesex Club, takes out its pack of twenty American hounds twice a week. The Leesburg Hunt, which is the host of the Middlesex Club, takes out its pack of twenty American hounds twice a week.

London hounds will hunt tomorrow at "Red Gate," the home of Mr. David H. Tennant, and on Friday, Middlesex hounds will be cast at "Speedwell" near Leesburg.

Among the recent arrivals as guests of the two hunt clubs is Assistant Secretary of State Bacon, who has several valuable hunters in his stable here.
